

Story starter

His eyes blinked. They were the only part of his body that he could move: he was entombed in ice, and had been for some time. The person that had put him here was far away by now.

Glancing around in desperation he tried to move his aching body, but it was no good - there didn't seem to be a way out. Time was slipping away... He had to escape. If he didn't, then darkness would cover the world...

Continue the story.

Remember

- Setting description
- Expanded noun phrases
- Consistent use of tense (past or present)
- A range of punctuation
- Subordinate clauses (see this week's grammar activity)

Question time

- Do you prefer summer or winter?
- Is it easier to keep yourself warm in a cold place, or keep yourself cold in a warm place?
- How would you feel if you could only move your eyes? What would life be like?
- Give examples of ways to communicate if you could only use your eyes.

Picture it

- Let's say that the sun came out and all of the ice melted. What would the picture look like?
- Draw or describe what you have imagined.