Monday 9th March 2026

Dear Parents/ Carers,

Free breakfast club programme - April 2026 (Date to be confirmed)

I am writing to inform you that after the Easter holidays, the school will be running a free breakfast club programme, which will be funded by the UK Government. In order for the school to prepare for the programme, alongside considering health and safety issues and Delta staff to be able to run and manage it successfully, I would like to know if you would be interested in your child/ children to attend. Please read the following information and complete for each child either the google form or the following response sheet no later than Tuesday 17th March 2026.

Free breakfast club programme: google form link for free breakfast link

Who will be running the breakfast club programme: Delta staff

Date: April 2026 (actual day of start to be confirmed)

Time: 8.00 - 8.45pm

8.00 - 8.20am is the only time breakfast

8.20 - 8.40am children will be encouraged to be independent and help tidy up after they have eaten breakfast and then will have access to playing board games.

8.40 - 8.45am Line up ready for their class teacher in the main playground.

Year Reception Kahlo and Year 1/2 Mandela will go to their classroom.

What will be available for breakfast?

- Milk or water
- Toast
- Cereals (weetabix, rice krispies, cornflakes)
- Seasonal fruit

When can my child/ children attend the breakfast club?

- Any day or everyday as long as they arrive in school between 8.00 - 8.15am. At 8.20am breakfast will not be served in order to ensure all items and equipment are stored before the school day starts at 8.45am.
